HOME SITE APPLICANT CHECKLIST

The purpose of this checklist is to list the steps by which an enrolled member of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe may apply for a home site lease. Tribal Council approval of a home site lease application is contingent upon satisfactory completion of the following steps. The applicant must have sufficient resources to secure the necessary services.

- A. Visit the Land Management Office, which will perform three tasks:
  1. Identify available land dedicated for home site use;
  2. Conduct an analysis to determine the serviceability of available land;
  3. Coordinate with Tribal Historic Preservation Office (THPO) to ensure the following requirements are met:
    - a) The Tribal Historic Preservation Office will research the proposed home site.
    - b) The THPO will either approve or disapprove the proposed home site, based on prior cultural surveys of the location, or schedule a cultural resource survey of the location to determine home site suitability.
- B. Serviceability means the practicality of providing water and sewer services, electrical power, and road access to a proposed home site.
- C. Once a suitable proposed home site is identified, the home site applicant shall be responsible for visiting the following offices to apply for approvals and services:
  1. Indian Health Service to apply for potable water service septic system;
  2. Appropriate utility company to apply for electrical service;
  4. Tribal Roads or other road contractor to make arrangements for road access to home site.
- D. The Tribal Council shall either approve or disapprove the home site application and lease.
